Listening	60-90 minutes	34–51 questions	Listen to lectures, classroom discussions and conversations,
Break	10 minutes
Speaking	20 minutes	6 tasks	Express an opinion on a familiar topic; speak based on
Writing	50 minutes	2 tasks	Write essay responses based on reading and listening tasks;

The test you take may include extra questions in the Reading or Listening section that do not count toward your score. These are either questions that enable ETS to make test scores comparable across administrations or new questions that help ETS determine how such questions function under actual testing conditions.

Please read the timing instructions for the Reading Section carefully. The instructions will indicate how many passages you will receive and the amount of time you have to respond to questions for those passages. Be sure to pace yourself so that you have time to answer all the questions.

A standard English language (QWERTY) computer keyboard is used for the test. We recommend that you practice typing on a QWERTY keyboard before taking the test.

What Is the TOEFL iBT Test?

TOEFL stands for Test of English as a Foreign Language iBT™ and measures your ability to use and understand English at the university level. It also evaluates how well you combine your listening, reading, speaking and writing skills to perform academic tasks.

Who Takes the TOEFL Test?

More than 27 million people from all over the world have taken the TOEFL test to demonstrate their English-language proficiency. The average English skill level ranges between Intermediate and Advanced.

- ◆ Students planning to study at a higher education institution
- ◆ English-language learning program admissions and exit
- ◆ Scholarship and certification candidates
- ◆ English-language learners who want to track their progress
- ◆ Students and workers applying for visas

Who Accepts TOEFL Test Scores?

More than 8,500 colleges, agencies and other institutions in over 130 countries accept TOEFL scores. For more information on how to find institutions that accept TOEFL scores, and more, check the website: http://www.ets.org/toefl/ibt/about/who_accepts_scores

Where and When Can I Take the TOEFL iBT Test?

The TOEFL test has more test dates (more than 50 per year) and locations (4,500 test centers in 165 countries) than any other English-language test in the world. The Division of Examinations is an ETS authorized TOEFL iBT Test center.

You can retake the test as many times as you wish, but you cannot take it more than once in a 12-day period. If you already have a test appointment, you cannot register for another test date that is within 12 days of your existing appointment.

What Does the TOEFL iBT Test Cost?

The cost of the test can range from US$160 to US$250 and varies between countries. The price for the TOEFL iBT Test on Sint Maarten is $195.

TOEFL iBT® Test Content

The TOEFL iBT® test is given in English and administered via the Internet. There are four sections (listening, reading, speaking and writing) which take a total of about four and a half hours to complete.

Combining All Four Skills: Listening, Reading, Speaking and Writing

During the test, you are asked to perform tasks that combine more than one skill, such as:

- ◆ Read, listen and then speak in response to a question
- ◆ Listen and then speak in response to a question
- ◆ Read, listen and then write in response to a question
